

What do you most look forward to in coming to work each day?

"I especially like the atmosphere at Jackson Systems. It does not matter if you are dealing with an employee in the warehouse or someone on the management team; everyone works as a team and takes equal pride in the company. When a problem does arise at work, everyone is willing to pitch in to do whatever is necessary to resolve the problem."

Terry McConahay, Human Resources Manager, Jackson Systems

"I look forward to coming to work knowing that I am an important piece of the puzzle. It doesn't matter your place in the corporation; everyone makes sure you know that you count. Each day we come together to do our jobs and we find a few moments in between to make sure that everyone feels like they are appreciated. It's being around the people that work here that I look forward to most every day."

*Erin Kleefisch, Client Service Manager,
The Skillman Corporation*

"As in many professions, our work doesn't begin and end in the office, but is part of us 24/7, 365. We are always looking for ways to help our clients communicate with their audiences; watching for new and better ways organizations are reaching their goals; and available to help with anything that arises. Each day I look forward to completing projects and to greeting new challenges. In my 18 years with Borshoff, it's never been dull!"

Jennifer Dzwonar, APR, Principal, Borshoff

"I look forward to the daily level of freedom and creativity I encounter; my mind never feels muffled. I am endlessly encouraged to seek new opportunities, collaborate with teammates and let my ideas come alive. From my very first day here, I've been recognized for successes and strive to encourage others as much as they encourage me. And the family bond we share here at One Click makes me feel welcome, valued and respected."

Molly Borter, SEO Specialist, One Click Ventures

"Simple. Our people. We are so fortunate to have incredibly smart and passionate people at KSM who are committed to their fields of work and their clients. We also have leadership who are open minded, collaborative and willing to let our entrepreneurial spirit shine through, no doubt exemplified by the many committees we have in place. Add to that a beautiful work environment, great perks and many social activities, and I can't imagine better."

*Jim Nestor, Director of Human Resources,
Katz Sapper & Miller*

"I look forward to entering a culture that is courteous and caring. Coming into work every morning you are greeted with: 'Good morning,' 'How are you?' 'How are your babies?' 'After you,' 'Thank you' and 'Have a great day!' All interactions are heartfelt and genuine. It is almost like I am in a different culture from my typical experiences in the general public. Walking into work and being surrounded by the wonderful associates of HRH makes my work day much more enjoyable!"

Jayme Kramer, Human Resources Generalist, Hancock Regional Hospital

"I look forward to working with the best and brightest group of people in Indiana each day. Working with people who truly take pride in their job makes for an unprecedented team atmosphere and a company unlike any other. The family-friendly culture and the trust they place in their associates makes MJ a place where I truly look forward to coming into work every day!"
