

It's Time to Find the Top Workplaces

For the last three years, 100 companies have been recognized in the annual Best Places to Work in Indiana program. If you missed the BizVoice® coverage of the 2015 winners, check out the May-June archives at www.bizvoicemagazine.com.

The key question: Does your organization deserve to be on the list in 2016? If so – or if you simply want to gain valuable and anonymous employee feedback – the first step is applying. Best Companies Group (www.bestplacetoworkIN.com) has all the information you need.

A few dates to keep in mind:

- November 20, 2015: Participant registration deadline
- December 18, 2015: Employer questionnaires due
- January 2016: Employee surveys submitted
- February 2016: Best Places to Work winners notified
- March-April 2016: Companies receive employee feedback reports
- May 5, 2016: Rankings revealed at awards dinner and in special edition of BizVoice® magazine

Here's what three of the 2015 winners had to say about the program:

Carrie North of Purdue Federal Credit Union: "The team camaraderie that comes along with being named a Best Place to Work is amazing. Every employee has a hand in making our organization one of the Best Places to Work. It's fun to see everyone celebrate the next day at work and share the news with their family and friends. It's an honor to be very proud of and to celebrate."

Rebecca Reott, Hanapin Marketing: "The Best Places to Work award helps us to reconfirm where employees see value, as well as provide increased visibility into areas where we need to improve. We use the feedback report from the competition to determine our focus areas for the next 12 months and beyond. It highlights any potential disconnects we may have (like quick fixes), as well as inspires us to improve on larger items over time."

Lisa Schlehuber, Elements Financial: "Being a Best Place to Work is about taking pride in who we are and what we do daily. We don't participate in the process just to get the plaque on the wall and to say we're the best. We take the employee feedback to heart and use it as a great tool to improve our workplace and its benefits and culture. We respect what it means to be on this list."

Best Places to Work sponsorship opportunities are also available. Contact Jim Wagner (jwagner@indianachamber.com) to be part of the celebration.
