

2011 Best Places to Work in Indiana

E-engineering, with Mike Dickey (left) and the five members of the ownership team of the Indianapolis company, tops the small/medium employer list. Winners are shown with Betty Lonis (state director of the Society for Human Resource Management – Indiana State Council) and Kevin Brinegar (Indiana Chamber president).

No. 2: Lawson-Fisher Associates of South Bend.

No. 3: CONTACT by design of Bloomington.

Nearly 900 people enjoyed the festivities at the Indiana Roof Ballroom.

Cheering on the winners with appropriate noisemakers is a Best Places to Work tradition.

2011 Best Places to Work in Indiana

The Indianapolis office of Microsoft Corporation leads the way for large employers. John Holton accepts the award and displays it for the crowd during his remarks.

No. 2: Edward Jones, with offices throughout the state.

No. 3: Centier Bank of Merrillville.

Interactive Intelligence team members celebrate upon hearing their company name called.

Delivra was a newcomer to the Best Places list.

2011 Program Sponsors: Comcast Business Class; Energy Systems Group, LLC; FedEx; Horseshoe Casino Hammond; Indiana Wesleyan University – School of Business and Leadership; Jackson Lewis LLP; Matrix Integration, LLC; Mussett, Nicholas + Associates, Inc.; Networks Financial Institute; Purdue University; Roche Diagnostics Corporation; Smithville Communications, Inc.; and Trilogy Health Services

2012 program: www.bestplacestoworkIN.com | Awards dinner: May 3, 2012