

What's Chirping on Tweet Street?

The Indiana Chamber has nearly 18,000 Twitter followers. Are you on the list?

@IndianaChamber

We support continuing financial support of Certified Tech Parks that have been successful and reached the $5 million funding cap. CTPs would earn the funds from the designated activity within the CTP. #ICCTech

Not good: Indiana (and much of the Midwest) would be hit hard if the US withdraws from #NAFTA! Analysis from the @USChamber <http://ow.ly/OmTe30h4Utz>

@causlander unveils our top legislative priorities at our 2018 Legislative Preview, sponsored by @IceMillerLLP. Among them are policies to enable more jobs to be filled and ensuring the state's tax environment is ripe for business expansion. #INLegis

Thank you @BrendaBrumfiel1 for joining us at our 28th Annual Awards Dinner! Brenda was the winner of our Twitter ticket giveaway. #INAD17

Congrats again to our Volunteers of the Year: Dave McKinnis, @3_smithey & @Dfaulkenberg & thx to all who contribute! <http://ow.ly/Y6mw30h4UCp>

What others are saying to – or about – the Indiana Chamber:

@LugarSeries: Lugar Series Board Member Blair Milo is featured on the latest Indiana Chamber podcast, addressing Indiana's workforce challenges.

@MicahLBerman: Great to see @IndianaChamber support #Tobacco21. Hope @OhioChamber will soon follow.

@CullenHMcCarty: Great comments from Fishers, Indiana Mayor @ScottFadness here at @IndianaChamber Tech Policy Summit. We need computer science as a part of our K-12 curriculum! It applies across all fields.

@brandonjsmith5: @IndianaChamber wants the state's business personal property tax reduced. Legislature took steps to reduce or eliminate that tax for some payers in 2014.

@FishersEconDev: Be sure to read the article about @RecoveryForceUS in @IndianaChamber latest BizVoice magazine!
