

The 2025 Chamber Day at the Statehouse connected local chambers and business leaders with key lawmakers like House Speaker Todd Huston and Senate President Pro Tem Rod Bray, plus afforded networking opportunities such as the Chamber Day Reception at the Indiana Roof Ballroom.

It was a busy legislative session for the Indiana Chamber, including giving testimony on key bills and working to make legislation stronger for Hoosier employers.

Work and Learn Indiana recently celebrated those involved in promoting, creating and participating in on-the-job experiences at its 19th Annual Impact Awards. (Pictured are the intern nominees.)

The Indiana Safety and Health Conference & Expo in February featured 100-plus companies showcasing cutting-edge products, equipment, technologies, innovations and new solutions.